Hey, did you hear about the rumours?

Sizzle~

Ah, about that kid named Eun Aran?

Yeah that kid, he's been rumoured as the "Teenage Master" or something.

Hey, can we talk about the Murim around here like that?

It doesn't matter everyone thinks we're talking about some novel or MMO anyways.

Huh... Is that right.

But that aside, his rumours are getting wilder and wilder every day.

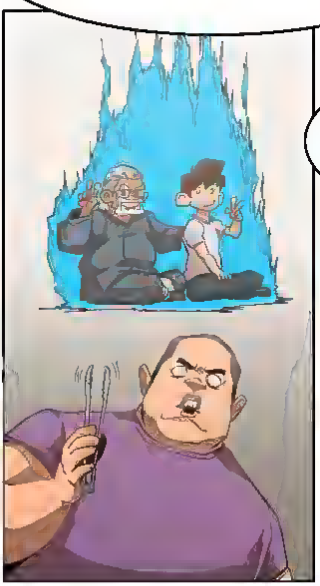
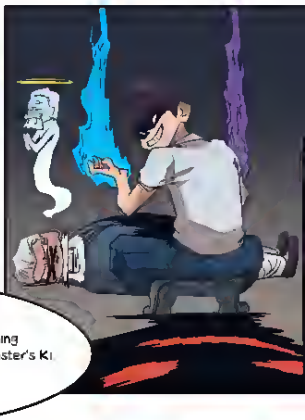
According to the rumour he inherited one of the oldest Ki from the Grand Master of Hongmoon Clan



But in truth, that Aran kid attacked the Grand Master in order to steal the Ki!



Yeah! The rumour says that he's been planning this for a long time in order to steal the Grand Master's Ki.

Re Really? How did that kid take down the Grand Master in the first place?!

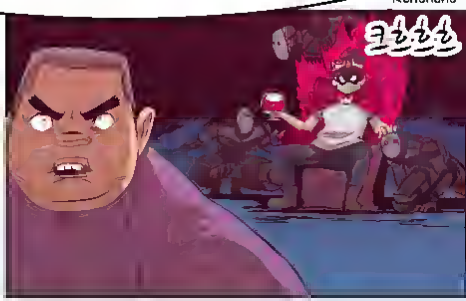
Sfx. Bang!

Where the hell did you hear that rumour?

Ju.. Just from people across

Also it's said that he leads the robots that's been kidnapping Masters and Disciples alike!

Kuhuhuhu



What?!
That's impossible!!

That has to be a lie right? How do you even control those monsters anyways?!

That Eun Aran kid didn't look older than a kid in Highschool

Who knows?! Anyone else got a rumour to tell?
Hmm...

Oh did you hear about that rumour?

I.. I heard a different rumour!!

I heard.. That he's swindling away with the Grand Master's grand daughter Su Jung

WHAT?!

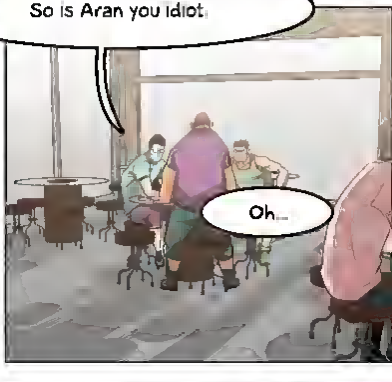
So is Aran you idiot



Oh...

According to the rumour they always have a date together with the excuse of training their KI.
호잇

No way!!

Do you think it's all true?! It seems all so unreal!
탁
You're telling me that a Highschool kid somehow beat up the Grand Master took his KI, leads the Robots and dates Haeji-Chan and Su Jung together?

It has to be somewhat true! There wouldn't be any rumours of him in the first place if he was a nobody!
Are you sure that everyone just isn't jealous of him? I mean he is young and strong...
That's not it...

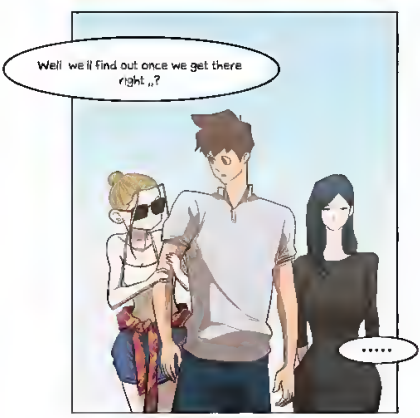
I don't think that's the case, no one knows anything about those robots, and it looks like the Branch information network isn't catching anything...



Well we'll find out once we get there right ,,?

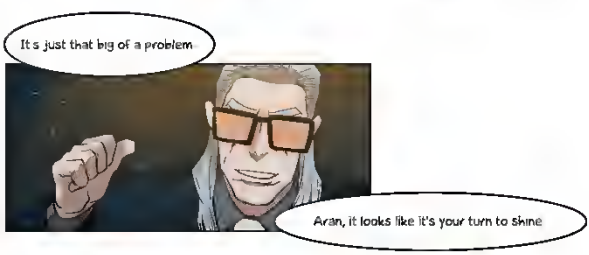
Finally here?

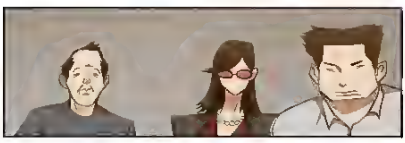
What's going on? Why did you bring us to such a obsecure place.



It's just that big of a problem.
Aran, it looks like it's your turn to shine.

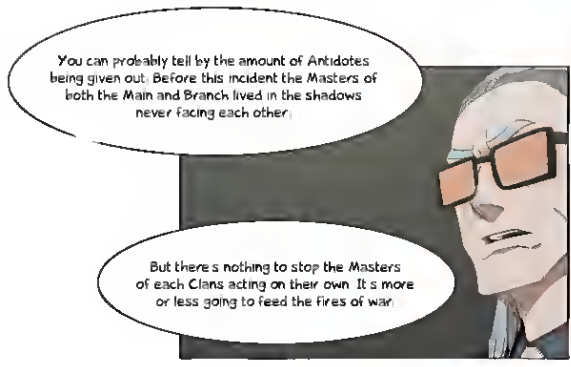
Huh?

You have to beat up those fellas over there right now.



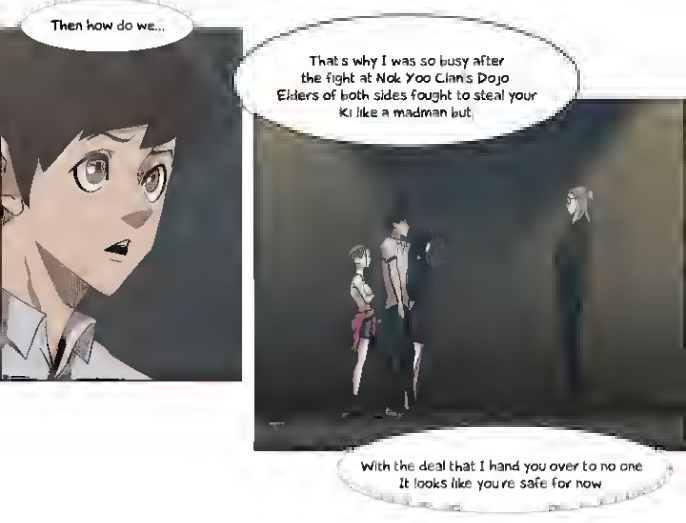
You're telling me to beat down those masters right now?!?

Yeah, ever since the fight at the Clan of Nok Yoo the relationship between the Main and the Branch became even worse.
Because of a little incident their plans of dominating the Murim world while the Robots were distracting the Main family was exposed.
So the Main Family Elders aren't just going to sit by and watch anymore.



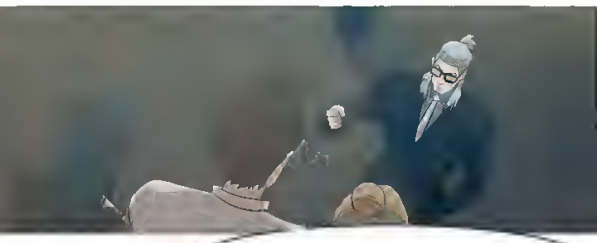
You can probably tell by the amount of Antidotes being given out. Before this incident the Masters of both the Main and Branch lived in the shadows never facing each other.
But there's nothing to stop the Masters of each Clans acting on their own. It's more or less going to feed the fires of war.

With the excuse of exterminating the Robots they'll be more and more conflict between the little Clans



Then how do we...
That's why I was so busy after the fight at Nok Yoo Clan's Dojo. Elders of both sides fought to steal your Ki like a madman but.
With the deal that I hand you over to no one. It looks like you're safe for now.

Huhu... Now is the time to reveal my grand plan.
And that is... While the Main family and the Branch family is distracted from dealing with those robots....



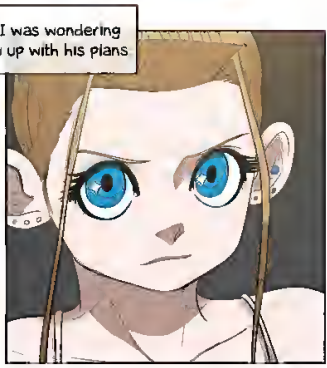
We create the New Murim Alliance!

New Murim Alliance?

The 500 year old Ki you have can be seen as a symbol for respect between the Masters of smaller Clans

And the people I've invited here are part of the 3rd faction! Outside of both Main and Branch families!

We'll lead them to create an army, and write a new history for the Murim!



As expected, I was wondering when he'd show up with his plans.

The reason why you were kicked out of the Main Family in the first place was because your ambitions, and because of your ambitions you were eventually exiled out of the Branch Families as well.

And now, you're going to use Aran to create a new faction for yourself? Suksoo... Could you be planning to take over the Murim for yourself?

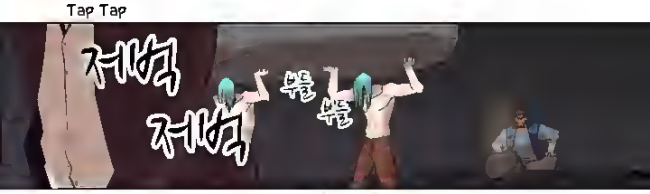
Our situation isn't too good Elder!
The rumour has it that we're allied with those robots and people are targetting us from all over the place!
If this continues...
We may lose the war all together...

We have to do something about this situation! Elder!
We must bribe the smaller clans, or hire a Mercenary Master that loathes the Main Family...

Tap Tap



Shiver Shiver

Damn it, this has gotten alot more complicated then I would've liked
I need to find out what that bastard Suksoo is thinking

Sfx Sizzle

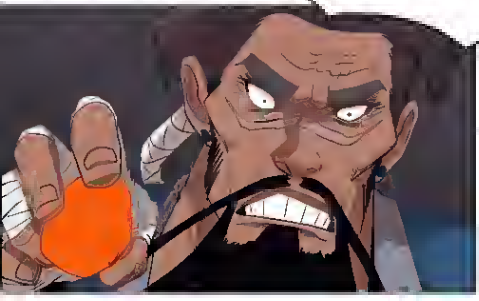
The 500 Year old Ki inside of Aran is a Masterpiece of those Main Family bastards.

Do you know how many of our own fell to the hands of that old man's Ki?

The Ki that was in the hands of the Grand Master is a Ki that's been handed down for past few hundred generations. It's one of the most precious Ki in the history of Murim

And that Ki went to some idiot of a kid who doesn't know anything!!

THIS WAS OUR ONLY CHANCE OF GETTING THAT KI!!!

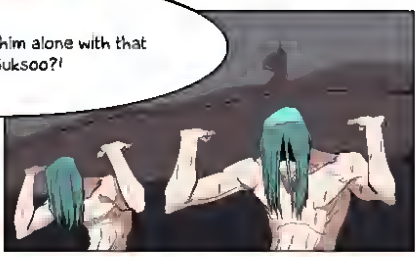


If we had that Ki... No! If you were able to convince Suksoo or Aran!!

We would tip the scales of power to our side...

We could've won the war against the main family!!

They talk of leaving him alone with that bastard Suksoo?!



I don't know what you're planning... But I'll expose you soon enough Suksoo!

So

That's how I ended up with the Grand Master's 500 year old Ki

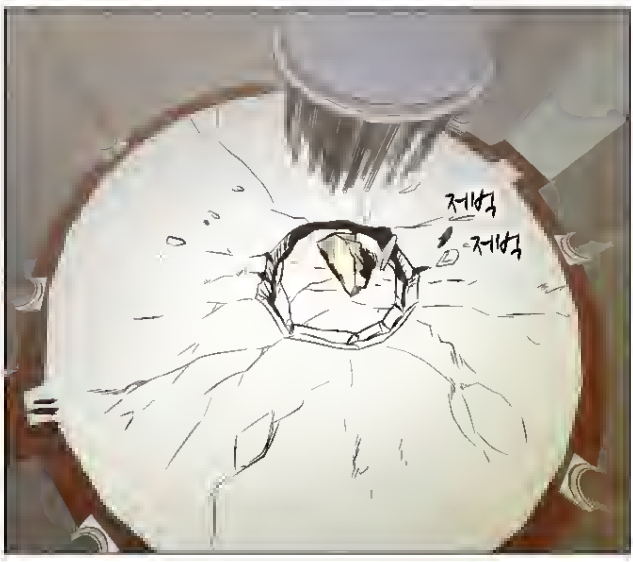
I... Is that so...
That is one strange fate...

Then I shall talk with the others...



What is the meaning of this?!

A new Murim Alliance?!
You never even consulted us!!

Yeah I'm sorry for planning ahead on my own, but this is the only way I can keep Aran safe from the Elders

....The only way?

Yeah... With the Main family asking for the Grand Master's Ki back and at the same time assassins from the branch family is constantly attacking...

I had you guys trained for this reason,
so that way even if you were attacked you wouldn't get killed

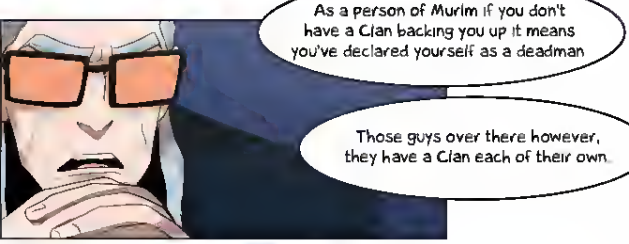
Really ?

스윽
Su Jung

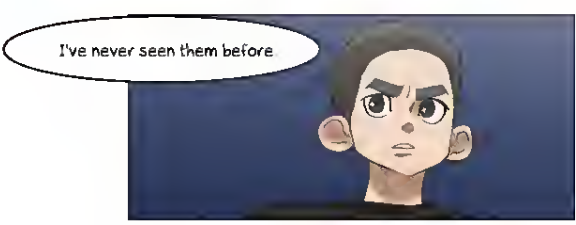
The Hongmoon Clan has officially been declared annihilated.

Surprised!

Me, and at the same time you guys. We no longer have a Clan



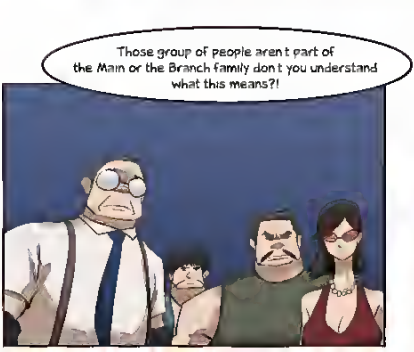
As a person of Murim if you don't have a Clan backing you up it means you've declared yourself as a deadman
Those guys over there however, they have a Clan each of their own.



I've never seen them before.

Of course not
They're newer Clans that formed after the "war"
They're weak and they're falling apart
What're we going to do with bunch of weaklings in our hands?
I know Aran is strong but they were all defeated in a single blow!
You're thinking about this in a wrong way. We're not joining them for protection.
We're joining them to Protect them!

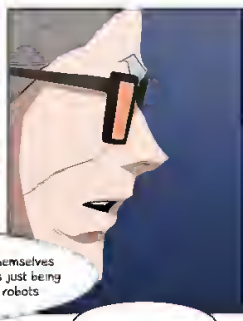
WHAT?!
벌떡



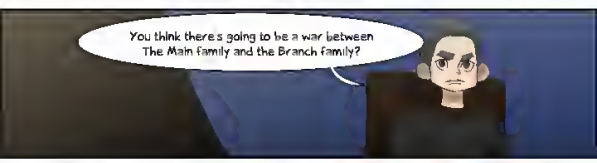
Those group of people aren't part of the Main or the Branch family don't you understand what this means?!

Those guys were something like that of a feeding box for those robots

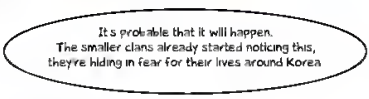
In the Korean Murim world, there's the Main Family And the Branch Family, and couple smaller Clans and Factions that is of some significant value.



While they were able to defend themselves the smaller Clans like this one was just being destroyed left and right by the robots
And also...

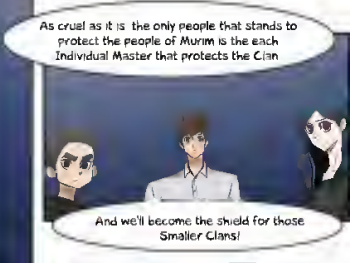


You think there's going to be a war between The Main Family and the Branch Family?



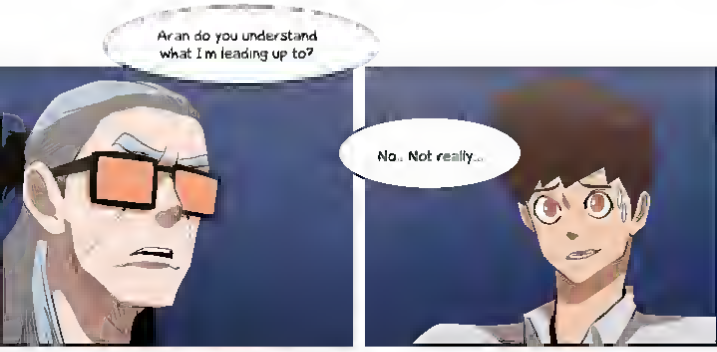
It's probable that it will happen. The smaller clans already started noticing this, they're hiding in fear for their lives around Korea

And people of Murim cannot ask help from the Army nor the Police.

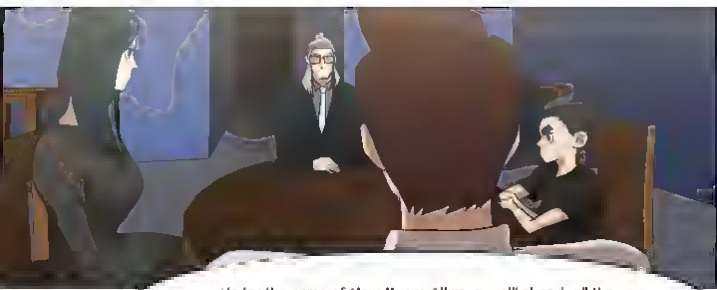


As cruel as it is the only people that stands to protect the people of Murim is the each Individual Master that protects the Clan
And we'll become the shield for those Smaller Clans!

...I kind of understand what you're saying



In short terms, you'll become the leader for those Clans.



Under the name of New Murim Alliance we'll absorb all the smaller clans that were not able to join the Main family or the Branch Family.

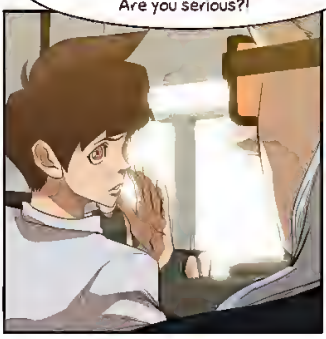
네넵쫌

G. Gramps Suksoo isn't this all too sudden?! A New Murim Alliance?! Are you serious?!



I had no other choice, there wasn't a single Clan left in Korea that would've offered you protection.

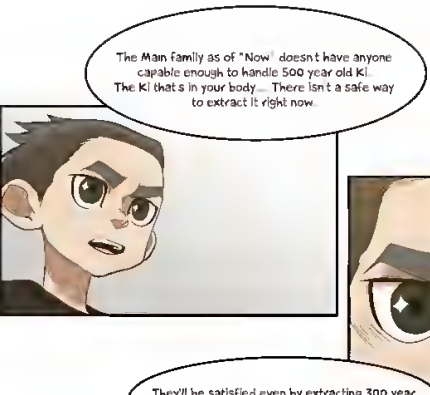
If the Hongmoon Clan survived... It would be a far different story... But the 500 year old Ki you currently have is no better then an Accessory

The Branch Family will try to brainwash you into destroying the Main Family... And if you go to the Main family they'll ruthlessly try to extract that Ki from you.

B...But this isn't mine to begin with...

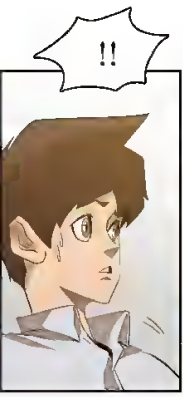
It belongs to the Main family so shouldn't it be returned to them?

No, you're wrong

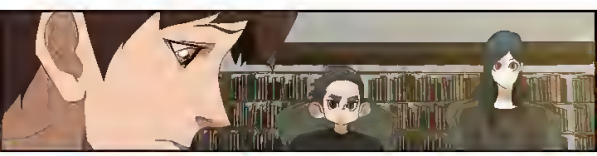


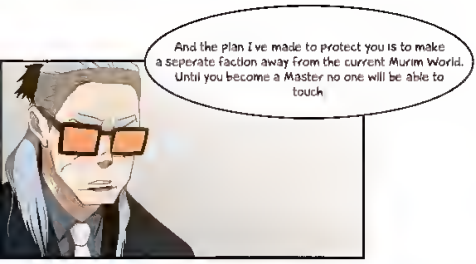
The Main family as of "Now" doesn't have anyone capable enough to handle 500 year old Ki.
The Ki that's in your body... There isn't a safe way to extract it right now.

They'll be satisfied even by extracting 300 year old Ki from you. Even if it means killing you in the process

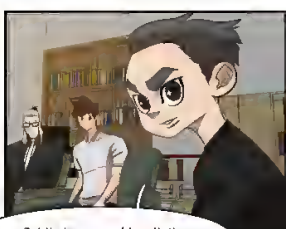


That's the reason Man Gang Hong sent you to me in the first place, because he knew what'd happen to you if you fell in the hands of either of the Families.
It's thanks to his sharp intuition that led you to me





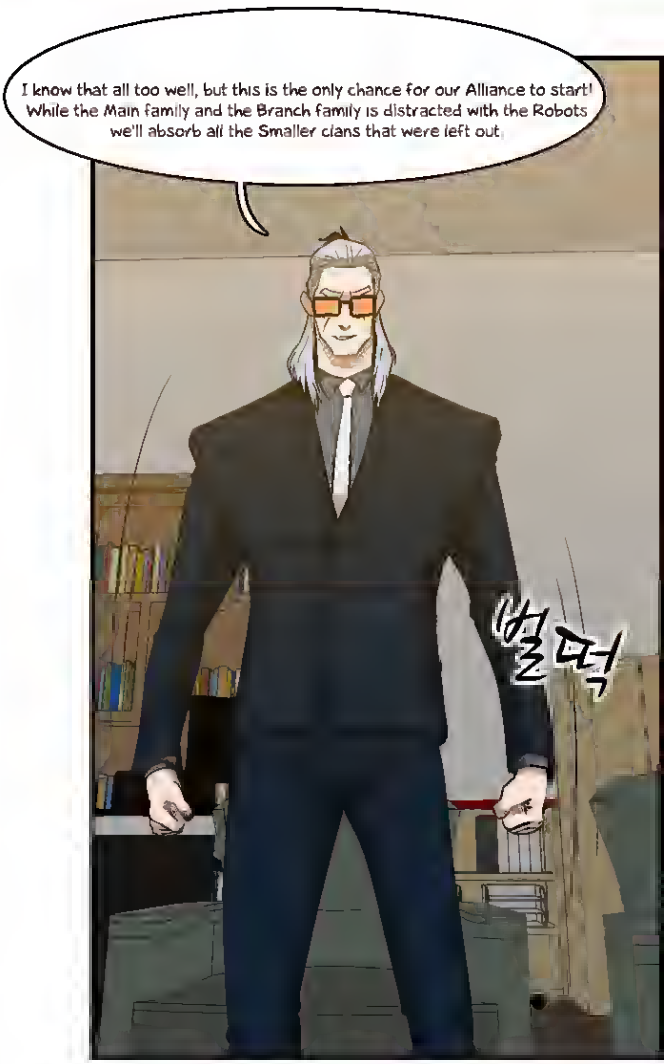
And the plan I've made to protect you is to make a seperate faction away from the current Murim World. Until you become a Master no one will be able to touch



But that's impossible with the current group isn't it?

Grr..

씨익!



I know that all too well, but this is the only chance for our Alliance to start! While the Main family and the Branch family is distracted with the Robots we'll absorb all the Smaller clans that were left out.
벌떡

We may be weak right now,
but we'll sacrifice everything for Aran
For the future of Murim and for Aran.
These each individuals are very important
So...
What's your plan now?
Huhu... From now on we'll start uniting the Clans that were left out
They may be weak right now.
But with the right leader...
TLN: Suksoo turned into Psycho Religion Preacher
We'll continuously absorb the smaller clans until we become a force that not even the Main family can touch lightly
Our objective is to draw a new face of Murim! And the talented individual we need is across the country

You old fox...
You've received the best opportunity you could possible want huh?

The Elders have given all of us orders.
Shin Sun Pae was created so that none of us would abuse our powers, a poison so delicate that you wouldn't be able to use a single ounce of Ki without risking your life.
But now that the Grand Master has passed away, we are facing a war with the branch family.

Wh.. Who.. Wh.. Who killed him...

Ah, it's the old man from Man Gang Hong!
Ah, Aran Daehyup! How are you doing?
Good timing. You've heard about yesterday's meeting between the main and branch families, right?
There was a lot of backlash, but the biggest issue was about dealing with Scorpion.. and what will become of the Ki inside of you.
They're really starting to irritate me. it's always the same rhetoric; "Give us Aran" or "Take out the Ki in Aran and give it to us".
True, the robots are a bit problematic, but the Ki inside of you right now could determine how the war here in the Korean Murim World will end.

So.. What's gonna happen to me?
Are they gonna try to take away my Ki?
Hmph!
Never in a million years!
I've made a plan to convince all those geezers in the inner circle.
This is..
We of the New Murim Alliance will now act in place of the Murim Elders; save clans in need and strike when necessary.
We're tasked with wiping out the robots from the Murim World.

We're not involved in their politics. We just help those in need.
They can't lay a finger on us as long as we're fighting the robots for them.
B.. But how will we fight the robots by ourselves?
Even with the smaller clans combined help, we still don't have the numbers to fight all the-
I know that all too well.
That is why I have asked the main and branch families to send their best and brightest pupils to assist us in defeating the robots.
It's just like the Hongmoon Clan..
Yup, I took the model from the Hongmoon Clan! We'll collect the strongest pupils from the main and branch families.
Then we'll get friendly and become like one big family!

Suksoo gramps is incredible too!
I can't believe he convinced the elders like this.

He even named the new clan 'New Martin Alliance'!
That was a pretty bold move, considering how bad it could have gone for him... You know, with that name and all...

Hah! That's because they're all younger than me!

끼!

Uwaak!!

끼!

끼!

Of course you'll be there as well!
You'll be fighting the robots with us for now.

Ah.. Yes!

끼아앙

Oh, Right!

I forgot to tell you..

WHAT?!
Tomorrow is the beginning of your school year?!

My father was out on international waters, so it didn't matter if I stayed out during the summer break.

But now I really have to go back to school, otherwise my father will hear about it.

It's fine if we practice from time to time, just like we did today.

But if we want to fight the robots, I'll have to stay awake day and night, right?

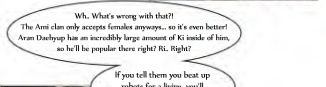
You.. You're right. Huh~ Damn it I totally forgot. I assumed you'd quit school and study under a Murim master, or transfer to a Murim related school.

However, you've yet to completely become one of Murim.

Does that mean.. We have to fight the robots without Aran?

Aran Daehyup, how about transferring schools? There's a really good high school linked to the main family, and the beauty from the Ami Clan made a residence there so you'll fit righ-
That's an all-girls school!

어머!



Wh.. What's wrong with that?! The Ami clan only accepts females anyways... so it's even better! Aran Daehyup has an incredibly large amount of Ki inside of him, so he'll be popular there right? Ri.. Right?

If you tell them you beat up robots for a living, you'll probably be twice as popular!
끼잉..
하하

Hmm... is that so?
How about it? Wanna transfer schools?
끼잉..

Ugh.. Ughhhh..
An all-girls school..

ㅈㅈㅈㅈ ㅈㅈㅈㅈ

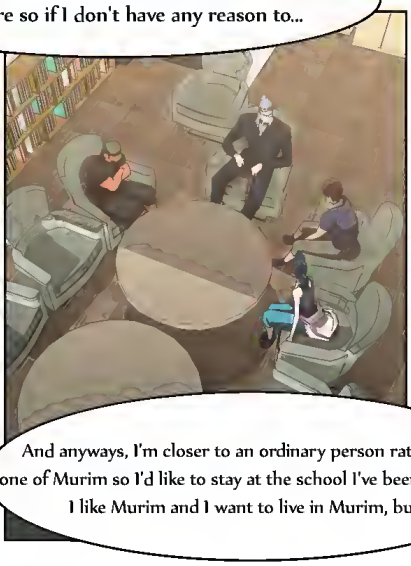
.....

If I suddenly transfer, my father will get suspicious.
Even more so if I don't have any reason to...



And anyways, I'm closer to an ordinary person rather than one of Murim so I'd like to stay at the school I've been attending.
I like Murim and I want to live in Murim, but...

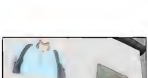
I don't know what to do..

Yeah.. Hmm..

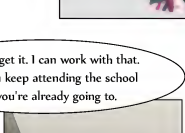
That aside..
You're not scared of robots are you?

That's not it!!

Hmm..



Alright, I get it. I can work with that. Aran, you keep attending the school that you're already going to.



What? If you mean that we're going to fight the robots ourselves and leave Aran out; what are we supposed to tell the elders?

The whole reason we even brought that up in the first place was so that Aran Daehyup doesn't get involved in their power struggle.

I have a plan, don't worry.

Aright, go back home Aran. Rest up and go to school; don't be late on your first day.

Alright, I'll be back after school tommorow.

The people of Marin used their skills to deliver Ki around the body to manifest their power.

Their skills appear to be a kind of blueprint to make use of their Ki...

No, I was with the Grand Master before he built the Hongmoon Clan.....
I was raised in the care of the Grand Master.
Hoo... I am sorry about what happened to Grand Master.
If the delivery men brought you the antidote, you're a part of the main family I assume?
Yes.....
In that case, I have a job for you.
We are currently trying to raise a clan under a single boy named Eun Aran.
That boy personally received every single ounce of the Grand Master's Ki.

SFx. Surprised

Is. is that the truth?!!?

Yeah it is. I'm telling the truth.
When scorpion ambushed the Grand Master,
he seemed to of have been caught in middle of the fight.

Unfortunately he wasn't a part of Murim,
but we should be thankful at the Ki lives on within him.

That's impossible... How can an average human hold such Ki From the Grand Master?

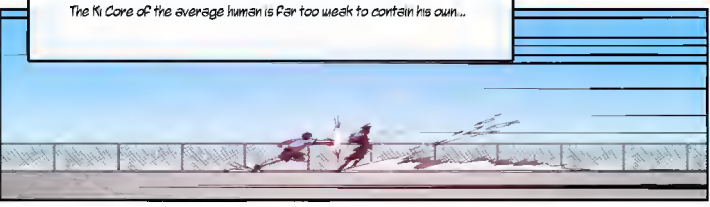
It's because of Grand Master's aura.

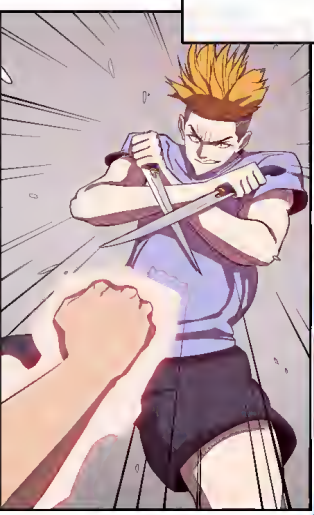
SFx: Points

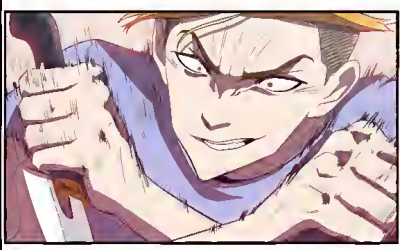
The Grand Master wrapped his aura around his Ki and then put it inside Aran.

The Ki Core of the average human is far too weak to contain his own...



...so the Grand Master sealed at least half of it before putting it inside Aran.





If that's the case....
Yes. The aura is monitoring the Ki so that it doesn't go berserk
It's as if the aura is acting as ice around water, the Grand Master's Ki still lives on That's why we need you even more
You know the Grand Master and his Ki better than anyone else
I want you to look over the children and Aran, who is containing that Ki.

What can I do to help? Suksoo, you're a savior who's looked after

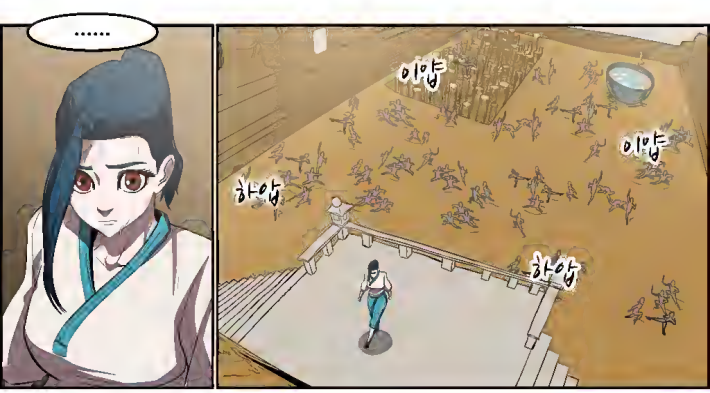
I don't like the fact that he sent a "teacher" to control us...

SFx. Headache

SFx: BANG~!

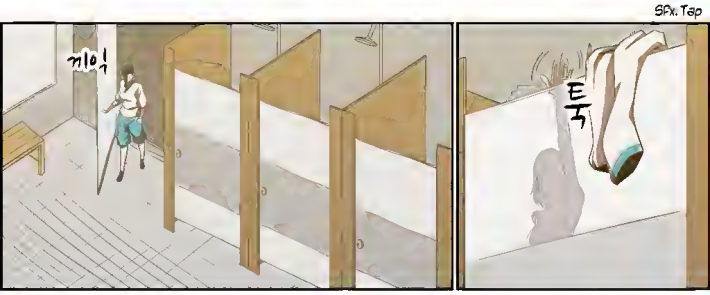
SFx: Fast

SFx: Shoooooooooo



SFx. Heap, Hwaa, Hiyaal

SFx. Tap



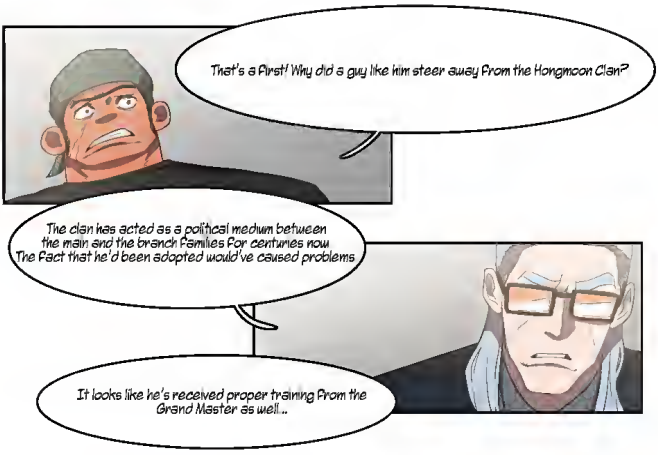
SFx: Creek

SFx: Chwaaa

SFx: Shwaaa

SFx. Shwaaaaa

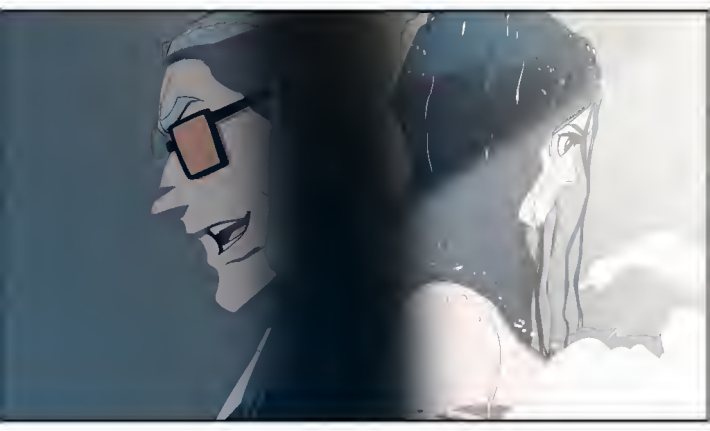
TLN : FAN SERVICE ANYONE? ANYONE ORDER FANSERVICE???

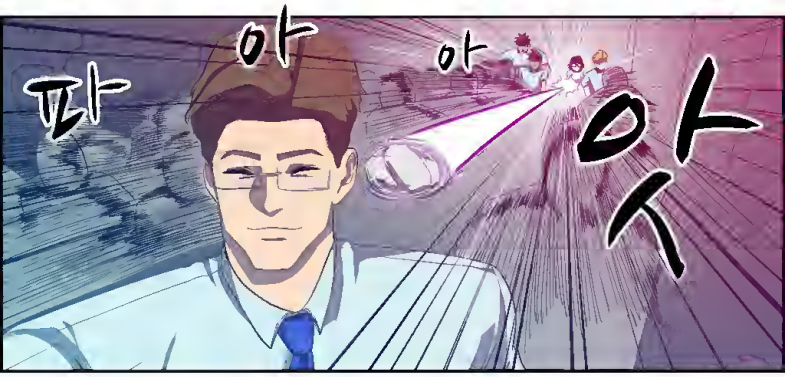


That's a first! Why did a guy like him steer away from the Hongmoon Clan?
The clan has acted as a political medium between the main and the branch families for centuries now. The fact that he'd been adopted would've caused problems
It looks like he's received proper training from the Grand Master as well...

TLN: In the murim world, pure blood = better for some clans.... even if it's incest

That aside, he'll need to be willing to work with those young masters from different clans...





SFx: Paaaaaaat

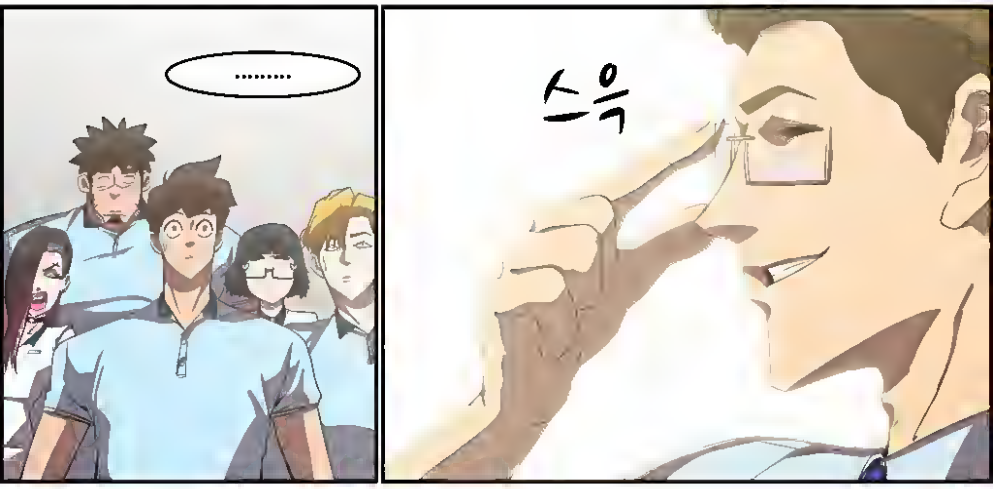
SFx: Bang!

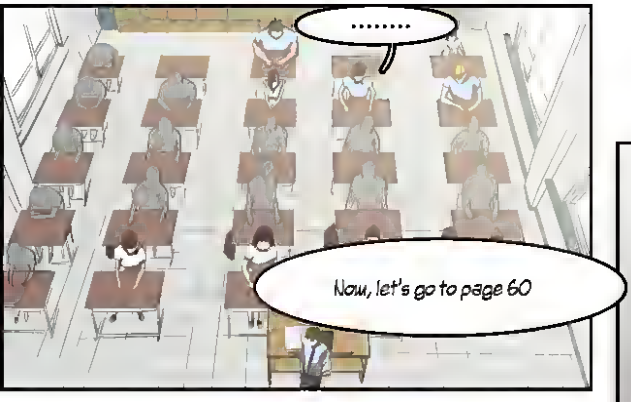
SFx: Surprised x2

SFx: Shooo~

SFx: Tap Tap

SFx: Swoop





SFx: Flinch

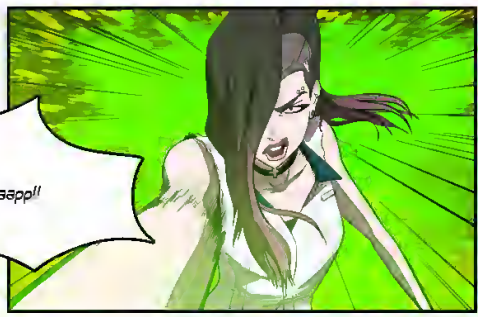
Ha~ I just threw that with the intention of killing him...

SFx: Chuk

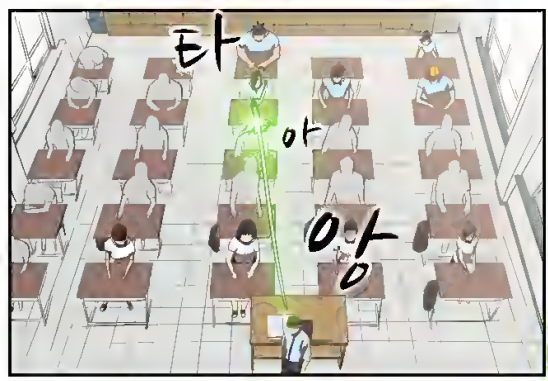
I need to know what kind of person Suksoo gramps sent.
If he intends to control us through him..
He's gotta be stronger than us, right?

SFx: Oong Oong Oong

SFx. Smirk

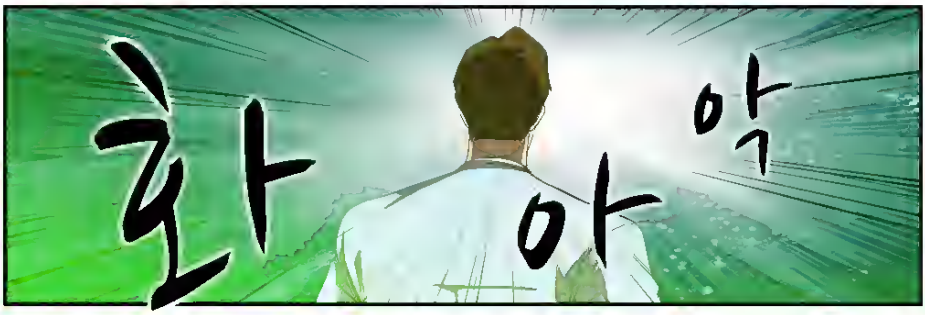


SFx: BANG!



SFx Shoooooook

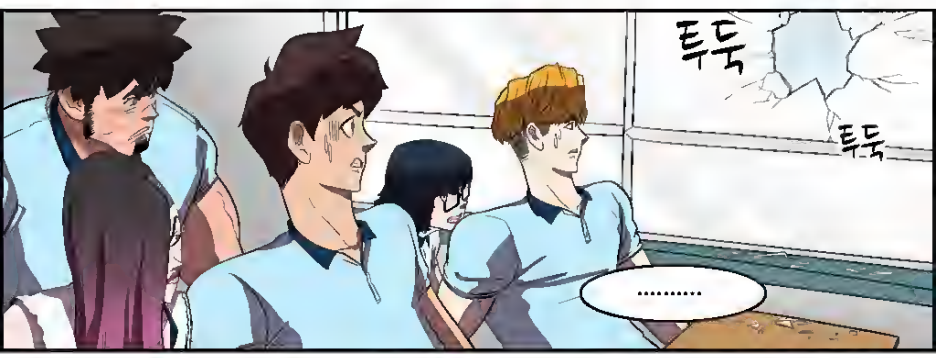
TLN . So harsh For the guy who didn't even introduce himself yet



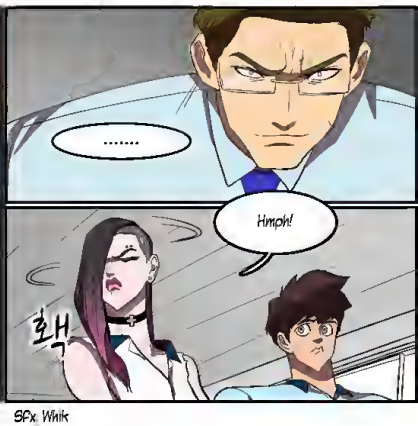
SFx: Hwaaaaak

SFx: Clang!

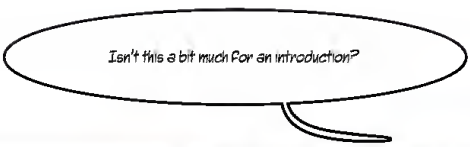
SFx: Tick Tick



SFx: Shoooo



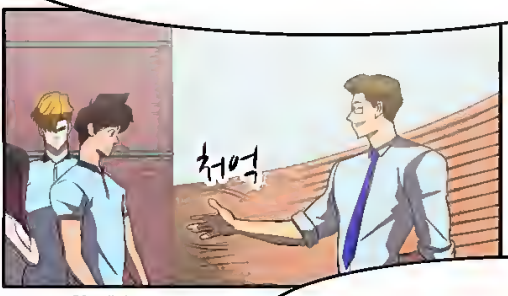
SFx: Whik



SFx: Chuk

SFx: Winds blowing~
휘이이이이이!
Hmph! I needed to test your skill, since he sent over a "teacher" without any advanced notice. Did you really think we'll just sit back and ignore it?
And if you're a teacher... you're gonna be giving us orders, aren't ya?
haha... i'm just here to help you guys hunt the robots, really..
And also.. . to protect Aran here ..?

You're Eun Aran, right? The "ordinary" kid who ended up receiving all of the Grand Master's Ki... I'd thought that Su-jung would be the one to inherit it...



SFx. Chuk.

However, I did not expect the former to take all of the Ki instead...

SFx: Chuaaak!

SFx. Chuk

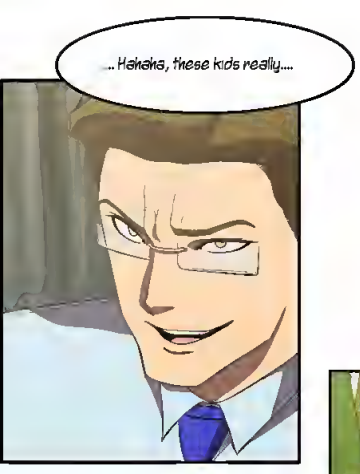
SFx. Chuk

What's going on everyone...

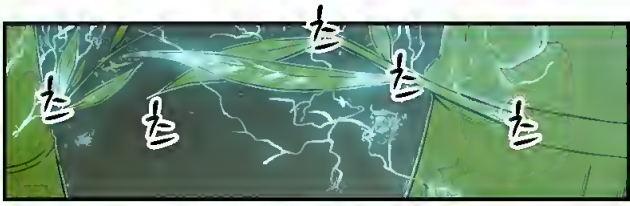
Didn't ya say you were here to protect aran?
What's the meaning of this?

Don't misunderstand me.

It's enough reason to misunderstand you, isn't it?
.....

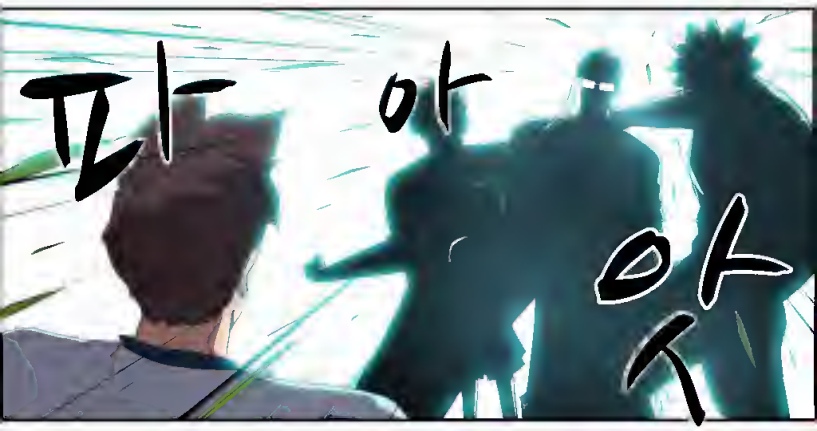


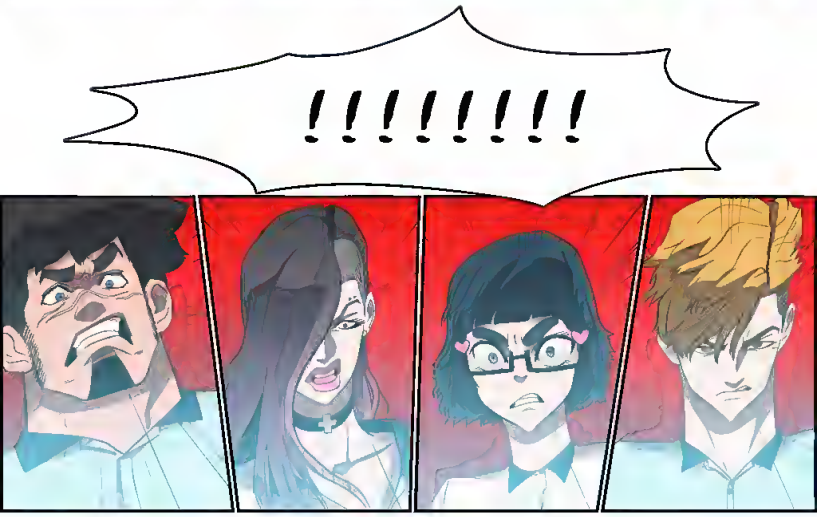
SFx. Gueeeeeeeeeeeeee



SFx. Teeeeeeeeeeeeeee

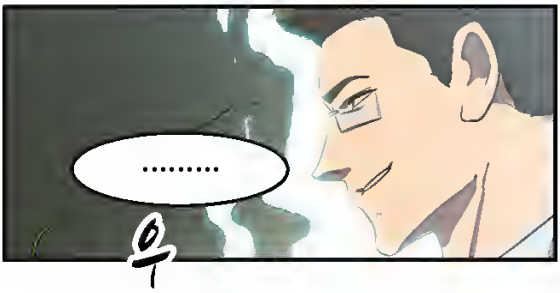
SFx: Paaaaaaaaat



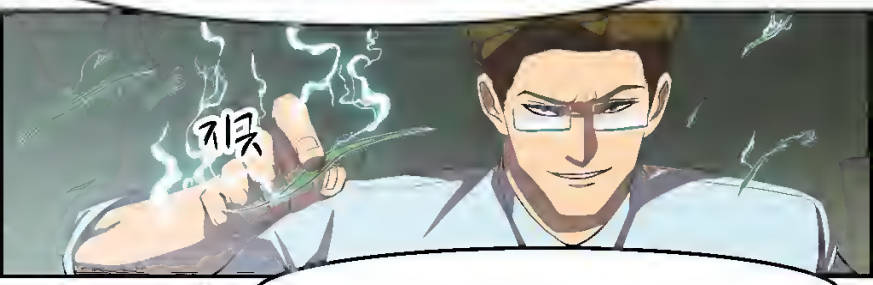


SFx: Sha sha sha

SFx. Papapapapat!



I'm not here to hurt anyone



SFx: Grip

Not you, not anyone...
